NOTES AND ORDERS.

Submitted.

1) The Transport Board for the Mysore State was constituted under G.O. No. 2457-76/CS. dt 9/11 Nov. 1942 and it began to function from December 1942. A Stenotypist has been sanctioned for work connected with the Board and the present term of the appointment expires at the end of the current official year as per G.O. No. S.D. 289-91/A.52-43-2 dt 17/20 July 1943. The continuance of the said appointment from 1st July 1944 is for kind consideration and orders.

28/168 VI/44.

2) The continuance of the post of the Steno-typist seems necessary as long as the Transport Board functions to enable the work connected with the Board being attended to. There is no other staff sanctioned for the Board.

21/6/44.

3) As this is the only hand sanctioned to for all the work relating to the Transport Board the continuance of the post is absolutely necessary as long as the Transport Board continues.

Continuation Sheet. File No. / Current No. Page.

In G.O. No. Ls. 8846-9/ dated (Flag D the 16th February, 1943, Sanction has been accorded, among other things, for debiting the expenditure on account of the Steno-typist attached to the Transport Board to the Department of Civil (now Food) Supplies. The Director of Food Supplies may be consulted in the first instance, re: the proposal to Continue the official as long as the Transport Board continues. Necessary provision for Continuing the appointment of the official during the whole of the next year has, however, been made in the budget of the Department for 1944-45.
